The image is a composite of two interior design photographs. The background is a full-width shot of a modern bathroom. It features a white vanity unit with a teal-colored top and a large, round, black-framed mirror hanging above it. The wall is covered in large, light-colored tiles with a subtle marble pattern. On the vanity, there are several decorative items: a small potted plant, a white ceramic vase, and a glass container with pens. To the right of the vanity is a woven wicker basket. In the foreground, a portion of a white toilet is visible. Overlaid on the left side of the image is a tilted, white-bordered photograph of a dining area. This inset shows a wooden dining table with black chairs, a round mirror on the wall, and a pendant light. The floor in the inset is made of light-colored tiles. The word "SERIES" is written in a bold, brown, serif font across the bottom of the tilted inset.
